Disabilities

Finding Hope in God's Goodness and Truth

Presented by Stacia McKeever

1. Why is it important to understand that every person bears the image of God?
2. According to Scripture, how do we know that God creates every individual?
3. Discuss the quote, "When it comes to disability, there is no 'us' versus 'them.' Only 'us.' All of us."
4. Discuss the following definition of disability: "The degree to which we are able to fulfill the mandate God gave Adam in the beginning—to be fruitful and multiply; fill the earth and subdue it; have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, and over every living thing that moves on the earth."

5. Which verses given in this presentation stand out to you?

6. How would you answer the question: How can there be a good God in a world filled with such debilitating disabilities?

7. We often hear or say, “God won’t give you more than you can handle.” How has your view of this statement changed?

8. Who do you know that lives with disability? What are some practical things you can do to help these image-bearers and their families?

9. Does God give “special kids” to “special people”?

10. Discuss the statement, “If you had more faith, God would heal you.” What do we learn from the Bible about this idea?

11. In what ways have you seen disability, sickness, or disease conform you more to the image of Christ?

12. What ultimate hope do we have to offer to those who live with physical disability? With spiritual disability (sin)?
